

Elliott Sanderson

Golf Course Superintendent

Elliott holds a degree in Turf Grass Science from SUNY Delhi and a degree in Agronomy from Cornell University. With almost 20 years of experience in the golf course industry, Elliott has worked at many of the major courses in the area, both public and private, including Greystone and Country Club of Rochester. He is currently a member of NYSTA and FLAGGS. Elliott grew up in Churchville and chose to continue his career close to home. His vision for Lake Shore is to provide the best golf experience in the area for golfers of all skill levels.
